4) How should I plan for my move?
8–12 Weeks Before You Move:

- If you own your home, contact your military moving relocation specialist to begin the selling process.
- Establish your preferred moving dates.
- Use our Resources pages to:
  - Compare school districts
  - Obtain free city reports
  - Use our salary and mortgage calculators to compare
- Set up a house-hunting trip to your new city.
- Have a garage sale or donate goods you do not want to move. This will help you save costs on the move.

4-8 Weeks Before You Move:

- Contact Military Moving Relocation to find and purchase your new home; arrange financing; establish close dates.
- Make a list of everyone you need to notify of your move.
- Obtain change of address cards from your local post office.
- Check with your school on transferring your children's school records.
- Research driver's license requirements for the state you are moving to.
- Find out from the IRS or your accountant if moving expenses are tax deductible.
- Discuss your insurance agent to discuss your insurance needs for your new home with your Military Moving Relocation Specialist.
- Select a new bank in your new city.

3 Weeks Before You Move:

- Make a decision on whether you will pack your own cartons or if you'd like to utilize a professional packing service.
- Begin the packing process if you are doing it yourself.
- Compile all personal records.
- Change your address on credit cards, magazine subscriptions.
- If you have children, arrange for them to be at a babysitter during loading day.
- Arrange to have your utilities disconnected after your move-out day.

- ❑ Arrange to connect your utilities the day before your scheduled move-in day.

2 Weeks Before You Move:

- ❑ Plan to use all the food in your refrigerator and freezer.
- ❑ Clean your home and clear basement and attics.
- ❑ Cancel all current delivery services such as newspapers.
- ❑ Dispose of all flammables, cleaners, paints, aerosols, ammunition, etc.
- ❑ Clear out your safety deposit box. Transfer bank accounts.
- ❑ Be sure that you have packed everything in advance.
- ❑ Drain the oil and gasoline from your lawn mower, and other power tools if they are to be moved.

One Week Before You Move:

- ❑ Confirm your travel arrangements for your family.
- ❑ Provide contact phone numbers for your Military Moving Relocation Specialist so that you are accessible during your move.
- ❑ Empty and clean your refrigerator and freezer, clean your stove, etc.
- ❑ Only use those household items that you'll need, such as sheets, towels, a few pans and dishes. Make sure everything else is ready to be moved.

Moving Day:

- ❑ Once moving van is loaded, double check that nothing was left behind in closets, basement, attic, cabinets, drawers, etc.
- ❑ Make sure your children and pets are not at home so that they do not get in the way of the moving process.
